PROJECT

College Website

In this project, we design a fully interactive college website. in this, we add a notes section and login page, syllabus section, and course section.

Csnotes

CSNotes is a comprehensive online platform designed to provide high-quality, well-organized notes for college students studying computer science. Whether you're preparing for exams, revising key concepts, or looking for structured study materials.

Hungries

Hungries s a modern web-based platform designed to simplify food ordering, table reservations, and restaurant management. Whether users want to order food for delivery, book a table at their favorite restaurant, or explore new dining options, Hungries provides a seamless and user-friendly experience.

Portfolio

This portfolio website is a professionally crafted digital space that highlights my skills, projects, and experiences. Designed with a sleek and modern UI, it serves as an interactive resume, allowing visitors to explore my work, connect with me, and understand my expertise in web development and design.
